

The Diversity Bargain

And other dilemmas of race, admissions and meritocracy at elite universities

A public lecture by

Dr. Natasha Warikoo, Harvard University

We've heard plenty from politicians and experts on affirmative action and higher education, about how universities should intervene—if at all—to ensure a diverse but deserving student population. But what about those for whom these issues matter the most? In this lecture, Natasha Warikoo will explore how students themselves think about merit and race.

Thursday 5th October 2017 at 6pm

Lecture Theatre 3, 3/5 Woodland Road, Bristol BS8 1TB

The lecture is free and will be followed by a wine reception. Booking is required:
